ABOUT SCOTT

Scott Cales, PharmD, is Pharmacy Manager at Hilliard Pharmacy, where he helps expand access to essential healthcare services in rural Florida.

Working at the intersection of pharmacy, primary care, and community health, he supports patients through medication management, chronic disease care, preventive services, and care coordination close to home. As a partner in CommHIT Everywhere, Hilliard Pharmacy is helping demonstrate how community pharmacies can serve as accessible healthcare hubs within a broader rural health transformation strategy. Through this work, Dr. Cales collaborates with CommHIT and other local care partners to ensure patients can access timely services in the communities where they live. A strong advocate for the role of independent pharmacies in improving health outcomes, Dr. Cales is committed to advancing practical, patient-centered approaches that strengthen rural healthcare delivery. He earned his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU) and is a licensed pharmacist in the State of Florida.
